Dear Friends:

As volunteers for Center For Family Services, a non-profit human service agency in southern New Jersey, our committee is pleased to share information about the Center's important work in our community. The mission of Center For Family Services is to support and empower individuals, families, and communities to achieve a better life through vision, hope, and strength.

On the evening of Friday, October 8, 2010, Center For Family Services and our New Beginning Committee will host A New Beginning Evening at the Collingswood Grand Ballroom to benefit Lynn's House, a place of recovery and healing for mothers. Kelly McGillis will share her personal story of recovery as our event keynote speaker. The evening will feature fashions by Primadonna and signature dishes by STARR restaurants.

Lynn's House, located in Camden, NJ, and home of the Center's Family First Program, is named in memory of Lynn Kmiec's dedicated work improving the lives of women and ensuring the safety of children in our community. Services provided at Lynn's House break down treatment barriers and offer mothers on-site child care, transportation, and individual and group counseling.

As committee co-chairs, we hope you will join with us for A New Beginning Evening. Your involvement will play a key role in ensuring mothers receive the support necessary to begin the process of recovery and reunite with their children.

We look forward to speaking with you about partnering with Center For Family Services for this important initiative. Please contact Jen Hammill, Community Relations Director, at (856) 964-1990 x129 or jhammill@centerffs.org, so that we can provide more information about Center For Family Services and details for the Lynn's House New Beginning event.

Sincerely,

Deborah Kroop
